

FAITH IN THE WORD

For the week of The Resurrection of our Lord
April 20 – April 26, AD 2025

As at our Lord's incarnation (when the Son of God took on human flesh), so now in the light of Jesus' death and resurrection, it is good for us to give attention to the two natures of Jesus. He who died on the cross and rose from the grave is both fully man, like us, and fully God, of one substance with God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And both of these MUST be true for our salvation. Holy Scripture says that Jesus "had to be made like his brothers (us) in every respect, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because He Himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted." (Heb. 2:17-18) Jesus was human in every way you are so that He could suffer temptation with you and truly experience your heartaches and sorrows and stand before the throne of God on your behalf. Jesus is also fully, truly God because only God could live a sinless life as we ought. Only God can overthrow the power of death. Only God could be a sufficient sacrifice for our sin and bestow upon us the righteousness that brings eternal life. So let us rejoice in the truth that our Lord Jesus Christ is both our brother (true man) and our Lord (true God) and confess this boldly and confidently to all the world.

The Catechism

As the head of the family should teach it in a simple way to the household. Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

The Apostles' Creed – The Second Article: Redemption

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean? I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity.
